After a blustery Saturday, the weather once again held out for the 'Fun Sunday' Lathkil Hotel 'Leg it Round Lathkil' fell race. The rain did threaten, but all 83 starters arrived back in the dry, if not a little mud splattered.

Not quite a new record, but Stuart Bond, running with number 007 of course, was first back to the Lathkil Hotel in a fine time. Two DPFRR colleagues fought hard for second place but Mick Stenton took it ahead of Rob Smith. There was a great turnout from the Totley club, encouraged by club secretary William Alves no doubt, and William, as a villager newcomer, did well to take the first local prize. A round of applause goes to Alexa Joel of Basildon AC, who was our first lady home in a time of 54'32" and now holds the ladies record for the race. Congratulations also to Ann Marie Jones who was our first Lady V50 finisher, ahead of the first Lady V40.

Thanks from the organisers go to all the marshals and start/finish helpers, solid as ever, and to the race sponsors Everards Brewery and Up and Running. The goody bags and vouchers from Up and Running Manchester were very much appreciated by the top twenty finishers and category winners.

The race made a significant contribution to the fund raising efforts of the Lathkil Hotel, who again were raising money for Children in Need. Hopefully we will see you all again next year – the date for your race diary is Sunday 11th November 2007.

Joe and Al.
